The Yale College catalogue for 1868–9 says that there are 723 students, thus divided Law, 17, medical 25, theological, 25, philosophy and the arts 140 academical, 516 These last are 115 seniors, 117 juniors 111 sophomores and 175 freshmen, probably the largest entering class ever in the College

A manuscript of some thirty or forty pages, relating to the history of Buxton Me, has just come to light It gives a description of every house in that town in 1797 telling who owned and occupied each and on what lot each was situated It is supposed to have been written by Cadwallader Gray, a native of Scio, and graduate of Harvard College

The forthcoming report of the Postmaster General will show in what States and Territories the receipts of postage fall short of the expenses of transporting the mails, including all the Southern States but Kentucky and Tennessee In these sections the expense of transportation alone exceeds the postage receipts by the sum of $3 001 328

THE UNRECONCILED SOUTHERNER.—Ex Gov Vance of North Carolina made the address at an agricultural fair in Danville, Va which is a good illustration of the crude thinking and inconsistent feeling of the unreconciled southerner of the day Note, for instance his sadness over the misfortunes that are coming to the negro from his freedom and his suffrage

The first thing that appears to me worthy of grave consideration is the great change which the abolition of slavery brought about for the southern farmers At first it struck a deadly blow at the system of large farms The breaking up of large farms into smaller ones and the substitution of the white labor, would inevitably drive the negroes off the land There is danger too, that our people in their changed condition will embrace the idea commonly worshiped in progressive communities, that money is the God of this life and the accumulation of it the chief end of man God forbid that the southern people should ever be bound to the chariot wheels of Ben Franklin and learn to esteem his picayune maxims above the apothegms of Bacon May they never never establish a Mecca of Cape Cod at Buzzard's bay or, worse, to allow the odor of Wethersfield onions to ascend from their altars of sacrifice The demand for white labor is the beginning of immigration, and the beginning of immigration is the beginning of the end of the negro The political privilege accorded him will only hasten his ruin by increasing his idleness, and filling him with dissatisfaction toward the humble paths of labor for which he is fitted He is told that he should not only control the destinies of a great nation at the ballot-box, but is eminently gifted without knowing the alphabet from a steam engine, to frame and organize the laws of a people whose statesmanship is enriched with the experience of 4000 years and believes he can spin out constitutions equally as well as split rails Nor will he work for $10 per month when he can get $8 per day as a framer of constitutions, so-called

CLASSICAL ENGLISH QUOTATIONS —A writer in the New York Observer says

The phrase "Cleanliness is next to Godliness" belongs to that class of phrases having a Scriptural sound such as "In the midst of life we are in death" "The King's name is a tower of strength," which those who do not "pray their bibles well" as Dr Cairns hath it, ignorantly assign to the Good Book

It is not yet quite settled to whom the saying properly belongs, perhaps to John Wesley as it forms a part of his eighth answer to this question "Are there any other advices which you would give the assistants?" (i e, his young preachers) Everywhere recommended decency and cleanliness, cleanliness is next to godliness And in one of his letters he writes "Be cleanly" "Whatever clothes you have let them be whole Mend your clothes or I shall never expect you to mend your lives Let none ever see a ragged Methodist

On the other hand those Christian ermines —the Quakers—who so practically exemplify their belief that cleanliness should be considered a religious obligation, claim this saying for William Penn, and their poet, Whittier, in one of his beautiful prose works, ascribes it to him

Among the quotations in common use, "Dark as pitch" "Every tub must stand on its own bottom" are found in Bunyan "By hook or crook" "Through thick and thin" are used by Spenser in the Fairie Queen "Smell a rat" employed by Ben Johnson and by Butler in Hudibras "Wrong sow by the ear" now rendered "Take the wrong pig by the ear" is used by Ben Johnson "Turn over a new leaf" occurs in Middleton's play of Anything for a Quiet Life "The moon is made of green cheese" is found in Rabelais "To die in the last ditch," is traced to William of Orange who once said "There is one certain means by which I can be sure never to see my country's ruin I will die in the last ditch

LORD OF PORK —While in conversation recently with an aged apostate who was disfellowshipped a few years ago for not paying tithes we asked him what he thought of that system to which elevating his eyebrows and leaning his head thoughtfully to one side he thus replied in brief "You see I was always very particular about payin up for a long time after I got here Finally it come a fall when I had ten very fine hogs Well to do the square thing I drove one of them up to the tithing yard and butchered the rest and set in to cuttin em up Well sir about the time I got it done here comes one o Brigham's clerks and took one tenth of the hams one tenth of the shoulders one tenth of the lard and so on clear through Soon after here come the Bishop and insisted on a donation for such a purpose and [illegible] [illegible] for something else and [illegible] when I got through I found I had the meat o just one hog left Well I went up to see the President about it and what do you think he said? Just go home and ask the Lord about it and see if He don't tell you Brother Brigham's mathematics are right that you've only given the Lord his share! Well I went home and didn't say much but I thought the Lord was fond o pork" — Salt Lake Reporter

A lady describing an ill tempered man says "he never smiles but he feels ashamed of it."

William T Sherman

There is and will be until the 4th of next March a vast deal of speculation as to who will be the members of the Cabinet of President Grant This sort of guessing will be a harmless waste of time and the most of it will probably be wide of the mark The comments on the probable members of the Cabinet may perhaps enable General Grant to see what is the public estimate of the men from among whom he will probably to select his advisers Just now however it would seem more profitable to inquire as to the character of the men who whether in or out of the Cabinet will be apt to influence the newly elected President in his future policy

Of all these we believe that William T Sherman will be the man nearest to the new President and most influential in his counsels whether the former shall be Secretary of War General or Lieutenant General In one of the capacities General Sherman will doubtless reside at Washington during General Grant's administration and so far as President Grant is concerned it will make no difference as to his most trusted Lieutenant's influence with him which of these offices Sherman may choose to occupy—for we believe that the option rests with the latter There is no reward for Sherman's services within the power of Grant to bestow, which the General of the Army would not eagerly confer on the man who was his most trusted counsellor and most efficient coadjutor throughout the war and whose often tried friendship for him was one of the most beautiful incidents of the war

The country has no reason to be jealous of the counsels of such a man as Sherman—the most brilliant, but the least understood of our Generals He is not only not a politician but he never could become one Endowed with the most active and keenest of intellects he is as utterly honest that he would be as likely to discover and assail the weakness corruptions and absurdities of his own as those of the opposite party A more unmanageable man there is not in America So far as party purposes are concerned he would be perpetually saying the wrong thing at the wrong time When he was sounded, last year, with a view to the Democratic nomination for the Presidency the politicians who attempted the job were bewildered by his alternate denunciations of Radical folly and Copperhead disloyalty For each he had a volley of those sharp, stinging sticking invectives which only an intense, earnest and honest thinker like Sherman can hurl

In these days, when the whole official atmosphere at Washington is reeking with corruption when no one dare say how far or how high the power of the 'Whisky Ring, the Indian Ring' and the 'Gold Ring' may extend—it will be something to have as a confidential adviser of President Grant, a man like Sherman, who so thoroughly loathes and so intensely hates all forms of official corruption The shaking of a red rag before a spirited bull is hardly more certain to excite his frenzy than the presentation of a clear case of official dishonesty of General Sherman is to rouse all the latent wrath in his nature A murderer he might excuse A man who would betray any official trust for his own benefit or that of his friends he could never pardon There are hundreds of Treasury agents and cotton speculators who could testify from experience as to Sherman's consuming and righteous wrath when he has caught them in dishonest practices More than once during the war he dared the consequences of disregarding extraordinary permits from headquarters at Washington, in order to punish or prevent these practices, for he is as fearless and uncompromising in the attack of abuses as of armed foes

It is fortunate, also, that General Sherman is absolutely free from the weakness of nepotism or favoritism. It was notorious in his army that his immediate staff officers were the last to be recommended for promotion His hard-worked Adjutant-General remained a Captain all through his campaigns, while the Adjutant Generals of Corps and Division Commanders were Colonels Lieutenant Colonels and Majors His failure to press the claims of his own military family was so glaring and even unjust to faithful officers, that his Corps Commanders remonstrated with him for his neglect He seemed surprised, and said, "Why, I might as well ask favors for myself" The idea of availing himself of his position to help those who were near to him had never entered his mind The only favor he asked at the time of the reorganization of the army, when his recommendation would in most cases have been almost equivalent to an appointment, was that two of his Division Commanders should be made Colonels of the regular army and this he did not regard as a personal favor at all, but as due to officers who had shown eminent soldierly ability and spirit. In almost all of the cases where we have heard of applications made to him by personal friends for his influence, he has refused In fact, a personal friend is almost the last man he would help to office, and most of them know the fact by this time

In whatever capacity General Sherman may go to Washington next March, he will stand there for truth, justice honesty and plain dealing—an enemy not to be cajoled or intimidated of all scoundrels and schemers as true a patriot as ever wore the American uniform, and as steadfast a friend to the President elect as any President or ruler ever had He is often hasty and wrong in his judgment but General Grant has shown already that he knows how to use Sherman's best faculties and qualities without yielding his own cool judgment It is not likely that Grant will ever again see so doubtful and fateful an hour as that when he determined to drop below the batteries of Vicksburg, against the formal written protest of the man to whom he looked up to as an elder brother Should such an hour come, however he will again calmly trust to his own fearless judgment, and follow it to the end But, in the future, as in the past he will lean trustingly, we may almost say lovingly, on the counsellor he has so often and so successfully tried—William T Sherman —N Y Times

RINGING WORDS —A Republican paper of Connecticut the New Haven Palladium uttered the following stirring words in regard to the result of the election in that State

That our own Connecticut has redeemed herself is cause for profound gratitude to all who cherish a just pride in her record during the war She but hesitated for a moment her heart was still true to freedom She could not forget the brave dead who sleep in her valleys She could not write "In vain!" on the tombs of Lyon, Mansfield, Sedgewick and Foote She but bided her time and when she saw the traitors she had already helped to defeat in the field of battle, again arrayed in line, she gave them a volley as truely fatal as ever her Boys in Blue fired into the rebel ranks There is no mistaking the verdict she has pronounced upon those who claimed that she had joined the party of treason and dishonesty She comes back to the ranks of her New England sisters with honor and there will be rejoicing over her return True to herself New England is one more in unbroken line

The electoral vote at the last four Presidential elections up to 1864 was as follows 1852 Scott 42 Pierce 254 1856 Fremont 114 Buchanan 174 1860 Lincoln 180 Breckinridge 72 Bell 39 Douglas 12 1864 Lincoln 212 McClellan 21 In 1856 Maryland gave 8 for Fillmore The electoral college majorities of the Presidents chosen in these four elections were as follows Pierce in 1852 211 Buchanan over all in 1856 [illegible] Lincoln over all in 1860 57 Lincoln in 1864, 191 One elector in Nevada having died but two votes were cast

INTERESTING MOVEMENT IN INDIANA

[Correspondence N Y Tribune.]

LAFAYETTE Ind Wednesday Nov 11, '68.

A very bitter and withal, interesting and important quarrel has broken out among the [illegible] influential leaders of the Indiana Democracy, and bids fair to lead to somewhat startling results Your readers will perhaps, remember that, [illegible] six weeks before the October el[illegible] sensation was created in this State by [illegible] deposition of Mr Luke Devalin [illegible] manship of the Democratic State [illegible] mittee and the substitution of H[illegible] McDonald in his stead This step, [illegible] well known was taken in the in[illegible] Hendricks, who thoroughly dist[illegible] the special friend of George H Pendleton in this State it was expected would lead to an open rupture between Devalin and his adherents, the Radical Democrats on one side, and the more [illegible] wing of the Indiana Democracy, [illegible] by Senators Hendricks and McDonald, on the oth[illegible] It was confidently reported that Devalin and his friends would repudiate the D[illegible] ticket, and work openly for the defeat of [illegible] Hendricks The matter, however, was [illegible] up, as Devalin's friends said, owing to the [illegible] tion of that Democratic [illegible] to the [illegible] his party, but as the Hendricks men [illegible] in consequence of his lack of backbone to [illegible] them defiance Be this as it may, as the [illegible] paign was drawing to a close, this [illegible] quarrel apparently died away. Mr. [illegible] exceedingly quiet, and harmony [illegible] to [illegible] again in the councils of the Indiana D[illegible]

It appears, however, that this concord [illegible] a seeming one, and that Devalin and [illegible] other leaders who sympathized with him and share his aversion to the Hendricks [illegible] of the party, did not give the Senator that [illegible] support to which he believed he was [illegible] The Hendricks men assert even that the [illegible] soreheads secretly did all they could to [illegible] the State ticket, and have now announced [illegible] pose to make open war upon [illegible] The [illegible] however, is to assume larger [illegible] purposes as openly avowed by those who have entered upon it, is to drive all the radical Democratic leaders, especially those who were [illegible] bers of the Sons of Liberty conspiracy in [illegible] out of the party, and to place the latter on [illegible] patriotic ground than it has hitherto [illegible] The Democracy will hold their [illegible] Convention as usual, on the 8th of J[illegible] and the Hendricks leaders, it is confidently asserted by well informed parties, will on that occasion move the adoption of [illegible] the Indiana Democracy on a platform [illegible] sembling that which would have been [illegible] by the New York Convention in case C[illegible] Chase had been nominated for the Pr[illegible] and one of those resolutions will d[illegible] strong terms the conspiracy of the S[illegible] ty, and protest against the Indiana D[illegible] still being identified with the men who had [illegible] ed into that treasonable or[illegible]

This programme is for[illegible] in a very [illegible] munication which an Indianapolis D[illegible] lished in the Cincinnati Commercial, and in [illegible] he gave an inside view of the intrigues which had been going on for some time past between the various wings of the Indiana Democracy. The author of this communication, which has [illegible] created a sensation among the politicians [illegible] out our State, is believed to be [illegible] Pearce, Senator Hendricks' [illegible] his chief manager at the New York Convention and, it is thought, correctly reflects the views of Senator Hendricks himself. The [illegible] which the writer [illegible] ham, and all the [illegible] of the [illegible] 1864, and the charges which he [illegible] the Indianapolis Sent[illegible], the [illegible] organ, called forth an equally [illegible] part of Mr Devalin, and in [illegible] even the result of the P[illegible] talked of than the new mov[illegible] part a more patriotic character [illegible] of Indiana. Inasmuch as [illegible] his friends have the entire [illegible] their hands, and a large majority of the [illegible] tial Democrats of the State on [illegible] can be but little doubt that the new [illegible] persisted in, (and it looks very much as if [illegible] are in dead earnest,) will culminate in a [illegible] victory for them at the 8th of J[illegible] tion Their opponents, however, will not [illegible] without offering a most obstinate re[illegible] elm, Bingham, Milligan, C[illegible], [illegible] ard, Brown, Rustine, et id omne [illegible] as they still are by Jesse D Bright, who, it is [illegible] intends to return from Kentucky to [illegible] who constantly takes the liveliest [illegible] in the political affairs of our State, have so long [illegible] pied front seats in the Democratic [illegible] they will not willingly and good naturedly surrender them Without denying the [illegible] of the movement directed against [illegible] claim that its chief object is to pl[illegible] Hendricks in the front rank of Democratic candidates for the Presidential nomination in 1872. Whatever may be the upshot of the [illegible] the Democratic State Convention in January [illegible] bids fair to assume an importance such as no Democratic Convention in Indiana ever had before

A Sad Picture

In the Sunday Magazine, an English publica[illegible] appears a poem called "The Gang Chi[illegible]" The poem is accompanied by a full page illustration, and one of the texts of it is as follows

Eight appears to be the ordinary age at [illegible] children join the agricultural gangs; in [illegible] stances, they have been known to do so at four. It is a common practice with parents to stip[illegible] that if the older children are hired to the gangmaster he must take the youngest ones too. The distances they have to walk, or rather run, [illegible] the labors of the day begin, are aston[illegible] sometimes eight miles a day as in a case near Petersborough They leave at five in the morning under the care of the gang-master, and return at five at night. They work eight or [illegible] hours and during the last hour they are at work they will ask said an old gang master, forty ti[illegible] what clock is it

The atmosphere of moral corruption which surrounds agricultural gang work is such as can be paralleled only in the interior of Africa, as the behavior and language of the women and girls employed are such that no respectable man can speak to them or even look at them without being shocked, and any decent female would shrink from meeting them as they walk homeward[illegible] the fields

In a parish of Cambridgeshire, consisting of 12,000 acres the whole of which is the property of the Duke of Bedford labor for its cultivation can only be obtained at a distance of [illegible] even or [illegible] miles

From the poem we cut a single stanza

What matter the world grows old,
To toil and to sin and to die
In a story so often told
It never needs make us sigh
What is it —a girl and a boy—
They are poor—they were never meant—
To be the light and the joy
Of the homes to which they were sent.
In our nation's mighty schemes
In the world's great working plan
There was no room left it seems
For a woman or for a man,
Blighted before they are blown,
Let them sink to the earth like weeds,
So long as our crops are grown
So long as the sea recedes

Contests in the Electoral College.

The Union League Club of New York City recently issued a circular on the subject of election frauds, which proposes a remedy for violations of the popular will. In treating this subject heretofore, we have shown that there are no laws in existence to regulate contests for Presidential Electors. This is a great oversight, and it is time it should be corrected. The objects of the Club are limited to the State of New York, but the remedy suggested is demanded, and will apply equally well, in other States. The Club proposes to accomplish the following objects

1. To convince Congress that the reported majorities in the State of New York are so tainted with fraud, the result of a conspiracy concocted by a political organization in New York City, as to compel the rejection of the electoral vote of the State.

2. To secure such legislation from Congress or from the State Legislature as will better guard against fraud and authorize the exclusion of fraudulent returns.

3. To induce Congress to review the whole subject of naturalization, and place it exclusively under the control of the United States Courts, where it belongs.

4. To awaken the whole country on these subjects, and induce good citizens of all parties to combine in the adoption of measures to preserve the purity of elections.

These are all worthy objects. Half the electoral vote secured for Seymour and Blair rightly belongs to Grant and Colfax. Without the most outrageous and unblushing frauds, the Democrats would not have carried either of the States of New York or New Jersey. We have no doubt whatever that had there been a law in this State to contest this election, the Courts would have given the certificates to the Grant and Colfax electors. The informality of the returns from Union county,—the poll books not being sworn to and no one responsible for frauds had any been committed,—together with the largely increased Democratic majority of that county, is prima facie evidence of a fraudulent transaction. Besides this, Mr. Meacham has collected affidavits which show illegal votes enough in different places to overcome the majority claimed by the Democrats in the State. There being no law for the case, the Secretary of State could not go behind the returns sent to his office; so he was compelled to give the certificates to the Democratic Electors. But the Republican Electors are going to Washington to lay the matter before Congress, and try a remedy similar to that which it is proposed to try in the case of New York. Of course the Republicans do not need this electoral vote; but that should be no reason why they should unresistingly allow their rights to be trampled on.

THESE NEW TACTICS.—Scarcely had the polls closed on the night of November 3d and the wires proclaimed the utter overthrow of the Democratic party, when in all parts of the Union the defeated Democracy, with a [illegible]ful adaptability that was wonderful to behold, went to work to settle the policy of the new President. They had been wofully whipped "along the whole line," but without minding it they immediately set about the work of capturing their captor. The day before the election, Grant was detestable; fit only to be spewed out of the Democratic mouth. The day after the election he was in every way desirable, and must not fail, in the long run, to exhibit his Democratic affinities. It was cheerfully remembered that the Republicans had taken him unpledged (!) and behind that wall of silence it was morally certain that he had masked a battery which, when the time came, would clear the field of Radicals and send victory fluttering to the banners of Democracy. He had always been a Democrat at heart. He had committed himself to nothing not Democratic! He would show himself a Democrat at last! Good! The Radicals had elected a Democratic President! Such has been the staple of Democratic talk for a whole month. And it still goes on with as much volubility as ever. In the meantime Grant continues to smoke and speaks not, but the words of his rebuke to Johnson still ring in the popular ear like the blast of a trumpet: "This is a Republic where the will of the people is the law of the land. I beg that their voice may be heard. Sheridan's removal will only be regarded as an effort to defeat the laws of Congress. It will embolden the unreconstructed element in the South to renewed opposition to the loyal masses,—I mean those who supported the Government during the great rebellion." What a vast deal of cajolery are the Democrats wasting, to be sure!

OUR CLAIMS AGAINST ENGLAND. Some of our Eastern journals are of opinion that it would be quite as well for our Government to let the Alabama claims alone. They say the justice of the claims is obvious enough, but it would be better to let them stand as a precedent for retaliation in kind, when England gets into difficulty. Thus the Cincinnati Gazette remarks: "We had much better let things stand as they are. England set up a new principle of international law for her convenience when we were in difficulties and has enjoyed it. She does not mean to take into consideration anything more than the amount of direct destruction, and if she pays it at all, she means to whittle it down by all sorts of deductions, and to trump up a lot of offsets. Her turn will come next, and it is necessary that she should have a lesson by taking a dose of her own physic. If we set the precedent that she, under the name of neutrality, can send out privateers that can drive our commerce from the ocean, and then settle by simply paying for the ships actually destroyed, we shall have her playing the same game every time, for she can make a vast amount of money by it. We don't want any arbitration, nor do we want any settlement that allows that we have no claims beyond the vessels actually captured by the pirates."

NEW YORK CONGRESSMEN The city of New York has returned to the next Congress Fernando Wood, John Morrissey, James Brooks, S. S. Cox, H. C. Calkin and John Fox. The city of New York, the great commercial, financial and intellectual centre of the continent, is represented in Congress by blacklegs and mountebanks. The slums have all the representation. But they do two-thirds of the Democratic voting.

CUBA.—The Cuban insurrection appears to be formidable. It is a movement for the independence of the island and the establishment of a Republic. The insurrection is led by liberal Spaniards who proclaim the immediate abolition of slavery in the event of success. At last definite accounts the insurgents had 10,000 men, half of them white and half black, under arms.

Lands in Wallamet Valley.

It must be obvious to every experienced person that the time is coming and is not far distant when lands in Wallamet valley will possess great value. In many localities throughout the valley the market price of good lands has doubled within the last two or three years. In the nature of things a valley so situated, and so fruitful and extensive as this, must ere long become very densely populated. Being the largest body of fertile land on the Pacific coast, possessing a mild and healthful climate, and lying where it can easily become available for the purposes of commerce, it would be singular indeed if lands here should not soon rise immensely in value. The railroad lines now building will increase the value of lands fourfold within the next three years, and there could be no better or more certain investment for money than to lay it out in purchasing lands near these roads and wait for the rise. Those who desire to get land in Wallamet valley to establish homes would surely do well to move in the matter with as little delay as possible, for the time is near at hand when it will require no insignificant sum of money to purchase a farm in this garden valley of the West.

A "POLITICAL OMEN" WHICH INDICATED NOTHING.—Shortly after the nomination of Seymour and Blair, an ingenious Democrat told the public that he had made what he called a "curious discovery." He numbered each letter of the alphabet, and then added the numbers corresponding to the letters composing the two tickets, Seymour and Blair, and Grant and Colfax. The result showed 177 for Seymour and Blair, and 140 for Grant and Colfax, the total being 317, which is the number of votes in the Electoral College. Thus:

Of course it was suggested that the fates were against Grant; but however that be, the election turned for Grant. There is an old saying that "figures don't lie," but this and some other instances which our readers may remember would seem to show that figures, in Democratic hands, are not always trustworthy.

LAME LOGIC.—One of the Democratic papers of this city calls loudly for a special session of the Legislature, and says that if this step is not taken it will be the "funeral dirge" of the Republican party. Isn't it strange that our friend should be so exceedingly anxious to keep the Republican party in a living, healthy condition? Is he certain that he would desire a special session if he thought Gov. Woods' refusal to call one would destroy the Republican party?

MINNESOTA.—In this State the vote for Grant and Colfax is 43,666; for Seymour and Blair, 28,117. Republican majority, 15,549. In 1864, Lincoln had 25,060; McClellan, 17,375. Republican majority, 7,685. The vote of the State has increased 26,343 in four years, and the Republican majority has more than doubled.

The innkeeper is suspected of having been engaged in robbery and murder for years past. He has been arrested.

GIGANTIC ENTERPRISE.—A late Eastern paper says:

The railway bridge project between England and France has assumed definite shape. A company has been formed with a capital of £8,000,000, of £4 each. Half of the French capital has been subscribed. The model is to be finished in two months. It is to be a model of a bridge from the Shakspeare Cliff, Dover to Cape Blanc Nez, a short distance from Calais. The sounding across the channel between these two points show a regular and gradual descent from each shore, and the greatest depth of water is 157 feet. The length of the bridges will be 22,822 yards, divided into ten arches, resting on piers rising 360 feet above the sea, which will permit the passage of ships of the largest class. The piers are to be of metallic framework, with foundations four hundred feet long by 250 feet wide, tapering to 200 feet square at the top. They are to be constructed on land and floated out to their destined positions, where they are to be sunk and fixed.

FIFTH AUDITOR'S REPORT.—The report of the Fifth Auditor of the Treasury for the last fiscal year ending June 30, 1868, shows that the aggregate salary paid to our consuls during the year, including losses in exchange, was $373,750; total receipt in full from the consulates, $134,179, showing a revenue from this source of $61,129. Our consular system was never self supporting till the year 1866. Since that time the net revenue from this source has amounted to over $60,000 a year. The report also shows that the total expense of assessing the internal revenue tax throughout the country for that year was five millions one hundred and eighty-one thousand one hundred and seventy-nine dollars.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO DECEMBER 3.

Commercial Matters.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 3.—The National Board of Trade held a protracted session to-day. The only business of real importance transacted was the passage of resolutions presented from the Chicago Board of Trade, declaring that a custom prevailed in the Atlantic cities of selling produce nominally for cash, but really on a credit of from five to fifteen days, from which price the Western consignees suffer a loss, therefore

Resolved, That it is the opinion of the National Board of Trade that all sales of grain, provisions and other property consigned, for sale on owner's accounts, should be sold for cash on delivery. Local boards are recommended to adopt proper regulations in conformity with this resolution.

The resolution caused much discussion but was finally adopted by 42 to 26.

The Freedmen.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—A letter is published from General Howard, in which he says he has no doubt the continuance of the Freedmen's Bureau in those States not yet reconstructed will not fail to benefit the Freedmen, but he don't think its continuance absolutely necessary or adequate without other aid to protect their lives and secure them their political rights. In many counties their rights are positively disregarded among certain classes. This hatred, only time can eradicate. In the reconstructed States, protection can still be extended by the military authorities under the reconstruction acts. He will continue the school work in Virginia with all the means at his command.

Railroad Schemes.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—A meeting of influential citizens of Washington, representing a large amount of capacity to-day, adopted a report recommending charters for a national railroad north, a national railroad south, a national Chesapeake railroad to Point Lookout, and a national transportation railroad to the nearest eligible point on Chesapeake Bay.

The Indians.

SALT LAKE, Dec. 3.—A dispatch dated December 2d, from St. George, three hundred and fifty miles south of here, states that friendly Piute Indians, while hunting near the Rio Virgen, reported that the Navajos are this side of the Colorado river and making toward the Southern settlements. The stock was immediately gathered from the bottoms and placed under guard. One lot of horses and mules had been already stolen. A party pursued but did not overtake them. Several other lots of stock have since been run off and some killed.

The Revolution in Cuba.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Dispatches received at the State Department from our Consul General at Cuba state that the Revolutionists were badly defeated in their late operations. The impression is general that the Revolutionists will fail in their efforts to overthrow the present government.

HAVANA, Dec. 3.—The Revolutionists report that the future of the cause looks brighter. They will not surrender, and they expect reinforcements from the Americans. The Dominican newspaper, in an editorial, objects strongly to the assumption of the little Cuban Junta of certain persons in Madrid. It says that unauthorized persons do not represent Cuba.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—It is believed that the solution of the difficulties existing between Spain and the Republics on the Pacific Coast would be had soon.

E. B. Washburne thinks the appropriation required for the different bureaus of the Treasury Department are too high, and he will insist upon a large reduction.

The Jeff. Davis Trial Again.

RICHMOND, Dec. 3.—In the U. S. Court today, Chief Justice Chase on the bench, argument was commenced on motion in indictment against Jeff. Davis. Rob't Ould, counsel for accused, argued that the Fourteenth Amendment punishes accused by disfranchisement, but this punishment chosen by the voice of the people was a mere substitute for the penalty of death and confiscation. The punishment on Davis commenced on the day of the adoption of the Fourteenth Article. He cannot now be punished in any other way; that the will of the people as expressed in the Constitution is above all former provisions made for those who engaged in rebellion; that the Fourteenth Article is that latest expression intended expressly for the cases of all who engaged in the rebellion, and that no man can be punished twice for the same offence.

Richard H. Dana, counsel for the U. S., said that Ould's proposition was in the nature of things entirely new. It was unexpected to the Government, and unexpected also to the court. The Chief Justice said the argument of the counsel was not unexpected to the court, it having supposed that after the announcement that the motion to quash indictment was based on the 14th article, this line of argument would be pursued. Time was given the Government counsel to consider, and the court took a recess.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—Gladstone has gone to Windsor. Parliament will hold an informal meeting on the 5th and then adjourn to February 15th, to give time for the selection of a new Ministry.

Reverdy Johnson was entertained at a banquet last night by the Chamber of Commerce of Birmingham. John Bright was one of the guests. Johnson, in response to the usual complimentary toast, referred to the change in the Ministry. He said he knew those who were likely to succeed to the Government were anxious to continue the present policy in the negotiations between England and the United States. Bright said the presence of the American Minister is a proof that the United States forgives her enemies in England as freely as she has the rebels. He referred to the policy of the British Government during the rebellion in its action in recognizing the rebels as belligerents. He rejoiced in the prospect of a speedy and amicable settlement of the difficulties between England and America.

The Times comments with severity on Disraeli's resignation and denounces his retreat as cowardly. It says it is unprecedented, except in the case of the resignation of Earl Ripon, who had become Premier, however, only during a recess. The Post, Telegraph, News and Standard, applaud the prompt action of the Premier as calculated to save the Queen from embarrassment and his party from needless mortification.

MADRID, Dec. 3.—The Provisional Government has established a fixed tariff schedule for taxes, to take the place of the present shifting and arbitray scale of custom duties.

Lieutenant General Sanz has been appointed Captain General of Porto Rico.

An Imperial newspaper predicts that the Republicans will succeed in the forthcoming elections, and a new Ministry will be formed with Espartero as Prime Minister, and Osevenr, Castellar, Figueros, Sorma and Pierrad, at the head of the other departments.

PESTH, Dec. 3.—The Austrian delegation have passed the war budget. Czartorowizki, of the representative Poles, urged the adoption of the budget on the ground that Europe is in a dangerous state.

BUCHAREST, Dec. 3.—The Premier of the new Ministry, in a speech to the deputies to-day, declared that it would be the policy of the Government to respect treaties and observe obligations to the Sublime Porte and strict neutrality to foreign powers.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—Dispatches from Paris report that when the police learned that manifestations would be made in honor of Berdin, they took every precaution to prevent the people from assembling at the tomb. A crowd of the people, however, gathered in the neighborhood of the cemetery. The police dispersed the crowd, but they returned sullenly and continued for some time to occupy the neighboring streets. A few of the more obstinate persons were arrested, but there was no actual violence. At last accounts all was quiet in the vicinity. One of the French journals which appeared yesterday with a black border was immediately seized by the police. The impressing of editors and publishers for promoting the Berdin movement still continues.

MADRID, Nov. 3.—Esperto has been asked to become temporary Dictator of Spain.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4th.—Wells, Fargo & Co. advertise through tickets overland from San Francisco to New York at $264 20, currency, time 11 days. The fare to Chicago is $259 25, currency, and to Salt Lake $125. Through fare to Boston, $287.

It is stated that the employees of the U. P. R. R., who were sent forward to the Humboldt Wells, 150 miles west of Salt Lake, to grade the road eastwardly, have been withdrawn. This indicates that the California company is making such progress in laying the track that it is likely to pass Humboldt Wells considerably in advance of the Eastern company.

A report was brought to the police this afternoon that parties are riotously engaged in tearing down fences on Broadway, between Octavia and Laguna streets.

The report that the steamer T. C. Walker, running in the Stockton trade, had been bought off by the opposition is not true. Her agent says she will continue to run as usual.

Information has reached Postmaster Smith that on Saturday evening last two ox-team loads of overland mail matter left Austin, Nevada, on its way to Wadsworth, on the line of the Pacific railroad, and it is expected that the mail for this place will arrive on the Sacramento boat next Monday night.

Dr J. Letterman, of this city, has received the appointment of Surgeon General of the State, to rank as Colonel of the National Guard on the staff of Gov. Haight.

A fleet of about thirty vessels which have been weather-bound for several days inside Fort Point, went to sea last evening.

The schooner W. L. Marcy, of the coast survey, sailed last evening in search of the shoal reported by a shipmaster as existing about 70 to 80 miles W. S. W. of the Farallones.

FROM THE NORTH.

SEATTLE, Dec. 4.—The bark Fresno from San Francisco arrived at Port Townsend, Nov. 28, with small pox on board. She is now in quarantine at the head of Port Townsend Bay. Collector Wilson has issued orders to shipmasters and owners that any evasion of the quarantine regulations will be followed with the severest penalties of the law.

This section has been visited by heavy southeast gales the past week.

CHARITY.—A large class of people professing to be virtuous, on many occasions forget that to be charitable to a fellow being is the least virtue a person can possess. It is not always by giving money to the poor or assistin the afflicted that a person can only show their charity. A good advice is often better than money; for instance: Meeting a person who wishes to purchase a common or fine suit of clothes or any other article in the Clothing or Dry Goods line, is it not a charitable act toward that person to recommend them to go to Kohn & Fishel, you being certain that at that House they can purchase at the lowest rates and receive good goods, and where the most particular can be satisfied?

[illegible] —We [illegible] the subject of remark [illegible] the [illegible] of yesterday. The Circuit Court for Wasco [County] meets on the 14th inst. Rev J H W[ilbur] [illegible] [In]dian agent at Fort Simcoe W T yesterday succeeded in [arresting] Skamiah an Indian chief of a [illegible] all [illegible] of [illegible] camped opposite Celilo. This chief has lately [been] making mischief among the other Indians, and [it was] necessary to remove him to the Reservation, [to] which place Mr Wilbur [illegible] this morning. [illegible] [The] Templars of this city are progressing finely. [illegible] [A] lodge here is [illegible] and is gaining [illegible] strength daily. The good results of this [illegible] [are] plainly visible to every [illegible]. It is said [illegible] [a] man is seen [illegible] and very few [illegible] [in] our saloons. The morals of our little city are [illegible] on the [illegible]. We had the pleasure of [meeting] Mr Anderson Cox of Walla Walla on [his way] Wednesday evening. He has gone below for the [purpose] of procuring a printing press to publish a paper [in the] interest of the Republican party. Mr Cox is very [sanguine] for the future prosperity of Walla Walla [illegible] [and] he very highly of its present prosperity [illegible]. We wish he may meet with success in this new [enterprise]. The Portland Herald of the 1st inst comes [to us] with the closing chapter of [Ar]chibald Brown's editorial [connection] with that paper and we are right glad of it. We had become so tired of old Brown's whining that we had almost entirely quit reading the Herald. [In] [an]other appears the salutatory of Mr Sylvester [Pennoyer]. We welcome Mr Pennoyer as a member of [the press] [and] honestly hope that he will meet [with better] luck than his predecessor. The weather for [the last few] days has been rainy damp and somewhat [disagreeable]. This fall has been remarkably dry [illegible] having failed to allow the farmers to plow [or] prepare the soil for fall seeding. From the [looks] of the weather we believe the ground will [soon be in] good order. We have [illegible] [the best] [illegible] this year that has ever been experienced [by the oldest] inhabitant.

[Theatre] Affairs —While the theatrical company [now] here are making the most strenuous ex[ertions] and lavish expenditures to establish the theatre [as an] institution there are several classes of [people], having almost a direct interest in the success [of it], who withhold their patronage, for reasons [best known to themselves], sufficient perhaps, in most cases. At all [events] we do not think it our business to question them. [There is] one class mostly young men—who rarely [pay a] dollar for a theatre ticket, because as they say [they can]'t afford it. These same persons however [spend near]ly every evening in a saloon and upon an av[erage] from one to three dollars an evening for [liquor and ci]gars for themselves and associates. They [could make] an absolute saving of one or two dollars a [night] by going to the theatre or some other place of [amusem]ent, besides being better off every way [than] [drinking] the drinks and smoking the cigars [they can]'t afford to patronize the theatre.

[Pest] Hospital —We find an item in one of the papers which is a beautiful commentary on [the management] of the public small pox hospital. [I]t [appears that] the Health Officer reported at his office from [July] to the 21st of November 183 cases of small pox [in the ho]spital 79. No. of deaths reported 51 of [which 31] died in the hospital and 20 at their homes. Thus [it will be] seen that of the whole number of cases about [one half] died of the cases sent to the hospital almost [two thirds] died; while of those who remained at home [without] none of the advantages (!) of hospital treat[ment] only a little over 18 per cent died. Verily, the [hospital] must be a desirable institution.

Produce Statement —The receipts of produce [for the week] ending yesterday are unusually small, foot[ing up] as follows:

[illegible]	1 866	Paper bales.	240
[illegible]	1,270	Feed, sacks	95
[illegible]	113	Barley sks	24
[illegible]	921	Eggs boxes	[illegible]
[illegible]	31	Lard hlf bbls	104
[illegible]	3	Pears boxes	30
[illegible]	23	Hides	76
[illegible], bales	8	Iron ton	1
[illegible], pkgs	34

[Political] Somersault —The Evening Commercial [has,] until recently professedly a neutral paper [but for] a month or more it has talked in a decidedly [Democratic] way. Yesterday Mr Bull, the proprietor [announced] [publicl]y that the paper would hereafter be [the organ] of Democracy and that Col J C Dow [a prominent] and brilliant newspaper writer will [take charge] of the editorial columns. This step is [taken] in consequence of the late revolution in [the Herald], and in the expectation of supplanting that [paper as the] Democratic organ of the city and county.

[Suicide at] Canemah —The following dispatch was re[ceived] [fro]m Oregon City yesterday. A man named [illegible] lately from Montana, committed suicide at Canemah [last n]ight by shooting himself through the head [with a] rifle, while in a temporary fit of insanity. [Parties] who came down yesterday afternoon, in[form us] that the man had been at work upon the rail[road], [and com]plained for some days of being unwell, and [was] [illegible] the night before, evidently with [illegible].

[Steamer] Disabled —The Commercial of last evening, [says] steamer Nez Perces Chief, on her last trip [stru]ck at Devil's Bend a few miles below Uma[tilla and] stove a hole in her hull, just forward of her [wheel]. By constant work of both crew and passengers, [she was] enabled to reach Celilo. Mr Gunn, Wells Fargo [messen]ger said it was with great difficulty that [the water] could be kept from the furnace and engines.

[Pioneer] Machine Sewing Factory —See advertise[ment of] Mr. J W Cook's Pioneer Machine Sewing [Factory]. Mr Cook has long been in the [illegible] of bag [making] and repacking merchandise, and those [needing] anything in his line may depend upon the [prompt exec]ution of their orders. Give him a call on [illegible], next block north of the O. S. N. [Co's].

[Exports] for San Francisco —On the 23d ult. four [vessels of] the [illegible] arrived at San Francisco con[taining] 20,900 sks oats 19 000 qr sks flour 2,200 sks [illegible] [illegible], 150 bxs apples, 200 hf bbls dried [apples], 150 bxs eggs. This amount is to be added to [illegible] reported as having been exported from [Janua]ry 1st, to date.

[L.] C. Henrichsen has just opened out the most [extensive] stock and finest assortment of jewelry and [watch]es, [illegible] box and clocks silver plate, and splen[did] [illegible], that has ever been offered in this [city]. [Those] wishing to buy elegant presents, or to [supply themsel]ves with anything in his line will do well [to examin]e his goods before purchasing elsewhere.

[East Side] Railroad —It was a mistake that the East [Side] Company had discontinued all work for the [winter]. Only the grading force has been discharged, [and abou]t two hundred men still employed in survey[ing] [and] at the mills and machine shops, and at the [car] [shops]. The car building and bridge-building will go [on throu]gh the winter.

[Insur]ance Office —Mr H H Johnston agent [of the] Northwestern Life Insurance and the Union Fire [and Marin]e Insurance Companies, has lately removed [his office] to the splendid rooms on the second floor of [Ladd,] [illegible] & Holmes brick block on First Street be[tween Washin]gton and Stark. Go up stairs and turn to [the left].

[Circuit] Court—Deady Judge.—The following [proceed]ings were had in this Court yesterday:

[Case] of H Coulson and wife vs City of Portland; case [argued] and submitted to jury.

[Adjou]rned over until Saturday Dec 5th at 10 o'clock.

[Valu]able Information —An eastern daily paper says [oxen] are wanted in Oregon at $1 000 a yoke. Our [farmers] who have been long in the habit of raising great [numbe]rs of oxen and selling them at one to two hun[dred] dollars a yoke will be delighted to hear of this [marke]d advance in the bovine market.

[Gone] East —Hon J H D Henderson arrived here [yester]day for the purpose of taking the steamer to San [Franci]sco, and then to the Eastern States. Mr S. G. [Reed] of the East Side Railroad, will start by the [same] [stea]mer, to-morrow for Washington where he will re[main] this winter.

[Annu]al Election —The stockholders of the P. T. Co [held] their annual meeting last Thursday for the election [of a] Board of Directors. The old board was re elected [witho]ut exception and the Directors will doubtless con[tinue] the present officers.

[Fancy] Dry Goods —Jackson Sanderson & Co advertise [as ha]ving a very large and fine stock of goods. They [certainly] have some of the richest and handsomest wares [ever] brought to this city. Do not fail to call and see [them].

[Lectures] —Rev Mr Elliott of the Unitarian [Church] will preach to-morrow at the Unitarian Chapel [the first] of a series of sermons on Religion. Subject— [The Religion] of Conscience and Practical Religion.

[Othello] —The famous Shakespearean tragedy of Othello [will be] played at Oro Fino Theater this evening with [Mr] Bates as Iago Mrs Bates as Emilia Thayer as [Othello] and Miss Cummings as Desdemona.

[An] Old Portlander in San Francisco —We notice [by] the San Francisco papers that Mr H W Rappleye [formerl]y of this city was recently elected a trustee of [the Fol]som Street Homestead Association.

[Water] Ditch —The McMinnville Courier says the peo[ple] of McMinnville are soon to have the water from the [North] Yamhill introduced into their town which will [give] them an exhaustless water power.

[Ship] Portland —News has been received that the ship [Jennie] C. Berne, of the New York and Portland line [arriv]ed at New York on the 21st ult and is now outward [bou]nd from New York to this port.

[Matinee] —The Bates Company will give a matinee [today] at the usual hour at Oro Fino Theater on [which occasion] the beautiful and sensational play of [illegible] Boyd will be performed.

[Gone] —Mr J B Robinson long connected with the [compa]ny has gone home but whether his con[nection] with the company is permanently or temporarily [severed] we are not informed.

[Stockholders'] Meeting —The stockholders in the Odd [Fellows] Building Association are requested to meet at [Odd Fellows'] Hall this evening for the transaction of [business].

Soirees —The regular weekly soirees in connection with the schools of Prof McCann at Cardinell will take place this evening at their respective halls. The public are invited.

To Sail —The steamship Continental will sail for San Francisco on [illegible] [at] [illegible] A M.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

PORTLAND, Dec. 4, 1868.

At New York gold was quoted yesterday at 135¼.

Legal tenders quiet at 73½@74.

The Liverpool quotation of Pacific Coast wheat has dropped to 12s, the lowest figure reached within the year.

New York telegrams quote flour at $7@12. Wheat, $2 25@2 50.

San Francisco telegrams yesterday quote Oregon Imperial flour at $5 75 for export. Wheat is quoted at $1 65 for common, good shipping, $1 75, choice milling $1 80. These figures show the range of the market tails to fair demand at $1 60@1 80, according to quality. Barley—feed, $2@2 17; brewing, $2 12½@2 25.

Portland—Flour and wheat dull, at quotations remain without change.

Arrivals are very limited in consequence of the continued low stage of water in the Willamette river. The total receipts during the month of November were, wheat, 6,761 bags, equal to about 8,115 centals. Flour 33,263 qr sacks, oats, 7,117 sacks, equal to about 5,661 centals. The exports during the same time were approximately, flour, 32,500 qr sacks, wheat, 1,357 bags, equal to 1,640 centals; oats, 12,583 sacks, equal to 10,146 centals.

From January 1st to December 1st, we have sent to San Francisco, produce as follows: 428,601 qr sacks flour, [illegible] centals wheat, 36,712 sacks oats, 36,987 boxes apples, 170 bbls and 5,054 half bbls. dried apples, 3,850 packages bacon and hams, 778 kegs lard, 2,607 bbls beef and pork, 2,357 bbls, 4,352 half bbls, 4,078 cases, 770 pkgs. Salmon.

Produce of all kinds is dull at quotations in this market. From present indications, there will be a glut of the market as soon as the rivers get to a good boating stage, the supplies in the interior being unusually large and the chances of profitable export doubtful.

Merchandise market, in general, very quiet. Groceries, however, constitute an exception, supplies being limited and demand brisk—rates higher and advancing. Sugar is especially scarce. Dry goods are firm at quotations, with liberal stocks. Hardware stocks are very large, trade quiet, prices unchanged. Retail trade for the week only moderate.

Wholesale and Jobbing Prices.

Mr. Zachariah Wilson, Portland, Oregon, writes;

"It requires an article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself during the stormy ordeal of public experiments. Murray's Improved Magic Oil has stood the test of time and has not been found wanting. The astonishing efficacy that I experienced—its curing me of Chronic Rheumatism and Lumbago, of long standing—entitles Dr. Murray's Premium Lung and Liver Balsam and Improved Magic Oil to a high rank in the list of remedies for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Ear-ache, Distressing Pains, etc."

John English of Howell Prairie, Marion county, Oregon writes:

"I was taken with a severe attack of Rheumatism in my knee joints and extremities accompanied with a severe cough for two months so that I had to use crutches, meanwhile trying all remedies in common use. Your Magic Oil and Balsam gave me instant relief, and I was able to walk in four days without crutches. I have not felt any rheumatism since. I have seen your family medicines used with excellent success. I have no hesitancy in saying it is the best preparation for family use ever tried for those complaints. I am now on my way to South America after residing in Oregon twenty years. I must now have two dozens Balsam and two dozens of your Magic Oil, dollar bottles, as I am sure they are the best remedies in Oregon, and I would not be without them in my house, and when this package of medicine is exhausted I will send to your office in Portland for a fresh supply. CHANCE OF NAME!

MERCADO & CO., SUCCESSORS TO Mercado & Seully, have been obliged for their own protection and the safety of the public, to change the name of their celebrated Bitters to

Native California Wine
BITTERS

We subjoin the following affidavit in an injunction suit formerly pending between Mercado & Seully, plaintiffs, and G. A. Fimon, defendant.

P. Sainsevain, being duly sworn, says, "That the article known as Sainsevain's California Wine Bitters was manufactured by Mercado & Seully, about the month of March, 1861, without the said Sainsevain Brothers having any concern in the manufacture thereof. The deponent has always known and considered said Mercado & Seully as the Sole Proprietors of the Sainsevain California Wine Bitters."

Notwithstanding the above affidavit the said P. Sainsevain is putting up a compound under the name of Sainsevain's California Wine Bitters, representing it to be the same as our celebrated Bitters, which we have been manufacturing and selling in immense quantities since 1860, and also affixing a nearly similar label to that used on our genuine Wine Bitters. BE NOT DECEIVED! Send for

NATIVE CALIFORNIA WINE BITTERS,

And you will obtain the same popular beverage so favorably known since 1860. Beware of Counterfeits! Purchasers of our Wine Bitters are requested to observe the number of yellow label, and see that the words, "MERCADO & SEULLY, SAN FRANCISCO," are engraved on the Government stamp pasted over the cork of each bottle. This is the only effectual security against the counterfeit imitations.

PROSPECTUS

Weekly Oregonian

FOR 1869.

Nineteenth Volume!

Only $3.00 a Year.

By common consent, the OREGONIAN ranks first among the papers published in the Northwest. It is the oldest paper in the State, and its circulation and influence are greater than that of any other two papers combined. As a journal of enterprise in gathering the latest intelligence, and in giving in each issue a larger amount and greater variety of reading matter it has no competitor. It is thoroughly identified with this city and State and neighboring Territories, where the number of its readers and its influence are constantly increasing.

An unflinching advocate of sound Union principles, it at the same time pays special attention not only to MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST, but to everything of moment to the great

Agricultural, Manufacturing,
AND MINING INTERESTS,

And to the development of the resources and settlement of the Northwest.

Its columns contain a carefully prepared digest of

NEWS FROM ALL PARTS
Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana,

TELEGRAMS FROM

are published as full as in the California journals, and put before our readers from ONE TO THREE DAYS BEFORE ANY OTHER PAPER IN THE STATE.

Among its corps of writers are regular correspondents at New York and Washington City, men who, having lived in this State, are able to write on Eastern affairs, both politically and commercially from an Oregon standpoint.

Its Literary and General Selections are from the best sources.

EXTENDED AND RELIABLE

are furnished every week, giving the Financial, Dry Goods, Hardware, and General Market Reports of Portland, and the latest reports by Telegraph of the San Francisco and New York markets. The reports are acknowledged to be the most accurate published in the State.

In every department it will be, as it has been, the foremost in the State in the field of journalism. Being firmly established, it will go forward with confidence, seeking new plans for improvement and usefulness, and hopes to gain increased circulation and support.

The WEEKLY OREGONIAN has been a favorite paper for mailing to friends in the East. It will be mailed from the office at subscription rates.

Subscribers will find on each paper, with their names, the date on which their subscriptions expire, as entered on our books. In renewing, the name of subscriber and post office should be distinctly written.

All papers are discontinued at the end of the time for which they have been paid, the date of which is always printed with the name each week.

REMIT BY MAIL AT OUR RISK, in presence of Postmaster, or pay to the nearest authorized agent.

We ask our friends to aid us in extending the circulation of the OREGONIAN in every direction.
